

A3: Asylum Centers in Valais, Switzerland

The Asylum Office Valais provides two places to work with asylum seekers who wait for the decision for a stay permit. 2 volunteers will help animate and support the asylum seekers in Vouvry and/or Vétroz, two places in the canton of Valais. The canton is French and German spoken. The volunteers will have the opportunity to support the different workshops (restauration, refurbishing, language courses, sports etc.) within the center. They can also help accompanying the refugees to appointments (i.e. with doctor / administrations), help with childcare, office and kitchen work.

Accommodation: Volunteers are provided with a room for employees in the asylum center or a separate apartment.

Requirements: As asylum seekers often suffer(ed) from very stressful experiences, the volunteer mustn't be racist or xenophobe in any kind of way. A criminal background check is obligatory. Candidates with experience in the described activities above will have an advantage in the selection process.

